NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

COME TO

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen! Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at E. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this result to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T HANG OUT TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULDN'T HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. OUR GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL. MANAGE TO PLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE SETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE NATURE IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VERY AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND LIKE MOST TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT. BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR REPULSE; THEY ARE LIKE YOUNG LAGGARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BYRON AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

RADICAL WAR AND TREASON.

We notice that all the Radical ("loyal!") Governors in the Union are requested to assemble in Philadelphia, at an early day.—FOR WHAT? To organize against the Constitution! To plot treason! To prepare to defeat the popular will of the nation, if Seymour and Blair are elected! This is the purpose.

The Governor, so-called, of this State, is going on in the work of organizing his Radical army. Nothing is done to arrest this treasonable movement, and, when it is too late, the bloody evil of open and actual war will be upon the country.

We again warn the people of approaching danger, and tell them to keep out of "Union Leagues," as they are falsely called, and to be cautious about joining volunteer military organizations. It is well known that these Leagues are semi military in their character, and the purpose, in great part, is to use them in any conflict that may come. This meeting of Radical ("loyal!") Governors, at Philadelphia, is with a view to this war movement! Let the people beware! Let them, in this State especially, remember, that this Radical Governor, so-called, has been empowered by the Radical Legislature, to organize a volunteer Radical army of ten thousand men, if he wants and can get them, and as many detailed militia as he pleases, and that the whole Treasury of the State is at his command in this matter!

NEGRO ASCENDANCY IN THIS STATE.

Do the people know that the Radicals are using every conceivable appliance to secure the rule and ascendancy of the negro over the white race in this State? It is verily so. Since the Radical reconstruction policy of Congress began, thousands of dollars have been sent into this State, from Washington, to secure negro rule. Since this present campaign began, thousands of dollars have been sent from the same centre. Just think of that, North Carolinians! Negro rule and equality are not tolerated at the North, but these same people, that abhor it there, send money here, by the thousands of dollars, to fasten negro rule on you! How long before the people, all, learn this terrible truth, that negro rule and supremacy are to fill the measure of humiliation for the white people of this State and the South!

SIX CITIZENS of Robeson county, through the Wilmington Journal, announce their withdrawal from the so-called Union League.

FREDERICK LANE, Esq., a prominent and estimable citizen of Newbern, died on Monday last.

THE CONTRAST.

The Radical-Rebel Rule-and-Ruin party have ignored and cast aside the Constitution framed by Washington and the fathers of 1776. They treat it as useless and worthless trash—as an antiquated and obsolete instrument. They do not hesitate to so declare and proclaim to the world, and to laugh and mock at the patriot, who may dare to step forward as the advocate of constitutional right and free government.—They do this daily. They have adopted their system of reconstruction of the Union, without regard to and in the face of the Constitution, and call it the "Congressional plan of Reconstruction," as contra-distinguished from the constitutional way of reconstruction. Their plan, they frankly admit, is unconstitutional, and they do not ask the American people to endorse it as the constitutional method, but as the "Congressional plan."

Here is the first and chief plank in the Radical National Platform. Read it every body:

First—We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress, as evinced by the adoption in the majority of the States lately in rebellion of Constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all; and it is the duty of the government to sustain those institutions and to prevent the people of those States from being remitted to a state of anarchy.

It says not a word of the Constitution. It congratulates the American people on what? The triumph of the Constitution and the Union? No,—but on the success of the Congressional plan of reconstruction.—The Constitution is lost sight of,—it is intentionally put aside, abandoned and rejected, as antiquated and obsolete. It is a remarkable fact, that the Constitution is not mentioned or referred to, in the Radical platform of principles, nor in Gen. Grant's letter of acceptance, nor in that of Mr. Colfax.—We repeat, this is a remarkable and striking fact, and gives alarming evidence of the settled purpose of a great party and its leaders, to destroy the great chart of liberty. It this failure thus to recognize the Constitution, or to refer to it, was intentional and on purpose, then such purpose was a crime, unpardonable in the sight of every patriot. If it was by accident, then it shows that "Congressional reconstruction" was the uppermost and ruling idea in the minds of the Radical Convention and their candidates, and gives evidence of a wilful, a wicked and treasonable purpose to subvert and destroy the Constitution.

Americans! Are you prepared thus to endorse a deadly and fatal assault upon the chart of free government, simply to satisfy the spirit of passion, revenge and hate, engendered by the late war, and to keep in power the vicious and corrupt? We think not,—we trust and hope not!

How different,—how widely different,—the declaration of principles made by the Democratic and Conservative parties! Read what they say:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Now first read the Radical declaration above given, and then read this, and contrast them, and tell us which has the ring of patriotism in it! Here is one party declaring against the Constitution and for Congress; here is the other declaring FOR THE CONSTITUTION AND FREE GOVERNMENT. Who can doubt as to his duty, who will allow his honest, cool judgment and spirit of patriotism to direct his action in the approaching Presidential election? The Radicals are openly against the Constitution; the Democrats and Conservatives are for it! With whom will you go in such a contest? A patriot cannot hesitate. The simple issue is: Shall the Constitution operate and be preserved, and the Union be restored, or shall the Radical party triumph? That is the issue, let interested parties say what they may. It is reduced to that.

Americans, are you, to day, for the Constitutional chart framed by Washington and the fathers of '76, or are you for the Radical party? Awake, awake! Your country calls to you for help against its deadliest enemies!!

THE NEGROES FOOLED AGAIN.—The Radicals are to have a grand turn-out of soldiers in Philadelphia this week. Handbills were posted in Washington City the other night inviting the colored soldiers to be present. Forney calls this a Democratic trick! He wants no negroes to go. They might excite the prejudices of the Radical "boys in blue."

INDIANA DEMOCRATIC—THE RADICAL CENTRE IN THE NORTHWEST BROKEN.—"If there ever had been any doubt as to the vote of the State of Indiana, last Wednesday has effectually dispelled it. Indiana is sure for the Democracy in October and November next by rousing majorities! There is not only no doubt of the fact, but there isn't even a shadow to hang a doubt upon! The demonstration last Wednesday has struck terror into the hearts of the Rads.—They see the hand writing upon the wall, and their knees, Belshazzar like, smite each other as they read their doom. The Journal of this city, while strongly laboring to produce the impression that our meeting was a failure, could not fail, nevertheless, to show its trepidation and dismay, and calls loudly upon 'indolent Republicans' to go to work and try to save the State to Radicalism. Vain effort!—Let our friends abroad fully understand that Indiana is inflexibly, unalterably and largely Democratic, and will give such a sweeping majority for the Democratic ticket next October, as will put beyond all further doubt the result of the Presidential contest.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

OHIO.—General George W. Morgan, in a letter written to the Democratic Mass Convention lately held at Indianapolis, says: "WE SHALL CARRY OHIO!"

A dispatch from Columbus, Ohio, to the Cincinnati Enquirer says: "We have the names of one hundred and thirty three men who voted the Republican ticket in this city last fall, but who will vote with us in October and November."

The Detroit Free Press gives most encouraging accounts of the campaign in Michigan, and says that the Democrats hope to equal their conclusive vote on the defeat of the last negroized Constitution.

For the Sentinel.

A Word Before Election.

We are on the eve of what is considered, by all parties, to be one of the most important Presidential elections that has taken place in this country.

In their general aspects, all of our Presidential elections are important, because they determine the policy of the nation, both foreign and domestic, for four years at least, and sometimes for many years, while they commit to the hands of a single individual an enormous power of patronage and influence, which he may wield either greatly to the benefit, or greatly to the damage, of the whole community.

But the rapidly approaching election is invested, by the circumstances of the times, with a special significance. It is conceded, on all hands, that our country has reached a turning-point in its career—one of those crises when a choice is to be made between two radically opposite and inconsistent causes.

We are aware that it is a common resort of the newspaper writers, and of popular speakers, to represent every political movement, which threatens the well being of their party, or their own hold or prospect of office, as a great crisis; but it is in no sympathy with such views that we express our sense of the magnitude of the present contest. Something more than the interest of the ins and outs is concerned in it,—something more than the ascendancy of this faction or of that. It is, if we may so express it, an organic labor, and the result will be a very positive unmistakable good or evil.

The issue is plainly made at this election, whether the defenders of the old Constitution are to continue in the control of the Federal government, or whether they are to consent to take a subordinate position in politics, and remain with folded arms and silent tongues, until the last vestige of liberty has departed.

We do not mean, however, to discuss that issue here and at this time.

Whatever has occurred to us, to be said on it, we have already said; and we state it simply, as an occasion for urging upon all our readers, who are voters, the necessity and the duty of making up their minds upon that issue, and of voting upon it accordingly.

It is not an uncommon thing to hear people, who are intelligent and well-to do in the world, say that they take no interest in politics—that one party is as good as another for them—and that they do not care the snap of a finger what party succeeds. Others, again, disgusted by the low tone of political life, the abuse and vulgarity in which it abounds—by the shameless falsehoods circulated in respect to the character of candidates, and the profane and filthy places in which meetings are held—steadily refrain from all manner of participation, and do not so much as cast in their ballots.

How many of these kinds there may be, it is impossible to tell; but, if any one will recall the number within his immediate acquaintance, he will see that the aggregate must be very great. Reckon up the Clergymen and Professors in Colleges and schools, who conceive that it is improper for them to enter the political arena—the manufacturers and merchants who are too much engaged in their employments to give time to any thing else,—the mechanics and farmers of quiet habits, who dread the turbulence of political campaigns, and it will be found that together they constitute an inconsiderable part of the body politic. By reference to the statistics of the country it will be seen that the whole white male population of the United States, over twenty-one years of age, and, to be presumed, entitled to vote in 1856, was about 5,100,000, and yet the votes cast at a Presidential election seldom exceeded 3,000,000, leaving two millions of inhabitants who did not use their franchise. Go a little farther back and you will find, in 1852, the voting population in the State of New York was 800,000, yet the votes returned did not exceed 500,000. In Massachusetts, where there are more people, comparatively, capable of forming an opinion than in any other State in the Union, the white males over twenty-one were 300,000, and yet the vote, in 1852, was only 133,000, showing that nearly two thirds of the adult population, for some cause or other, had stayed away from the polls.

Then come nearer home, and you will find similar results, by reference to our own county elections of more recent date. It cannot have been forgotten that not more than fifty per cent of our registered voters cast their ballots last year, and but little more than 50 per cent of the votes was cast even in our recent elections this summer, and so with other counties in the State.—And doubtless the proportion is nearly as great in several other States. Some of these delinquents are, of course, kept away by illness, others by engagements abroad, but the majority, we have no doubt, by their own voluntary indifference and neglect.

The effect is, that the polls are controlled by interested or inferior persons, who get themselves, or their followers, into important trusts, and shape the laws, and the administration of the laws, to suit their own debased purposes.

They increase the taxes, they dispense jobs, they peculate the public funds, they degrade the entire business and character of office, and arrange elections so as to secure a kind of hereditary tenure for themselves and their friends. But suddenly, by some tremendous malfeasance, the community is aroused, and it looks with extreme surprise upon the enormity, to which abuses have been carried. Why, however, should it be surprised? Was anything else to be expected? If the best men of society, well informed and upright, were withdrawn from a participation in public affairs, leaving them to any and all sorts of cliques, or to professional jobbers, who manage primary meetings and Conventions, have they any one to blame but themselves? If the clergyman and scholar, if the lawyer and the merchant, if the peaceable mechanic and the honest laborer, refuse to take an active part in nominating and choosing good representatives, they cannot complain that the rowdy and the ballot-stuffer take advantage of their remissness.

Now, at all times, and in every community, it must be that those who are interested in good government and wise laws far exceed those interested in bad government and unwise laws.

The office-seekers and office-holders, the schemers and jobbers, who prefer to make a dishonest living by "plunder," rather than an honest one by work and always the few, compared with the rest.

It is an uncivilized and dissolute society, indeed, in which the rogues are in the majority; but if the honest sort abandon politics altogether, the rogues virtually become the majority. Though few, as to number, they are many as to influence. They are the real effective government of society, and the talent, the virtue, the capacity, to which we theoretically impute the actual control of affairs, sinks into submission and insignificance.

We have spoken of those who abstain from politics, as apt to be among the more intelligent and worthy classes, but we must qualify that admission to a certain extent.

They may be intelligent, but they certainly are not conscientious. No man, who comprehends the nature of our democratic life, can fail to perceive that the suffrage is the very breath of our nostrils; and if he neglect to exercise it, he is so far guilty of a capital moral offence.

The peculiarity of a democratic society is, that while it gives a larger scope for the exertion of every good and beneficent force, it also furnishes a wider field for the display of evil power. Its government confining its action to those few simple and primary functions, which look to the protection of individuals and no further, there is opened an almost unlimited arena for the encounter of the opposing elements of human nature.

Destructive and malignant passions are unloosed by the side of the more generous qualities; ignorance, and falsehood and selfishness are pitted, in mortal combat, against intelligence and virtue; and in the contemplation of the varied shock, the mind, which is not firm set upon the base of an indestructible faith in the goodness and truth of God, often wavers amid the impulses of fear and hope.

How immeasurably important it is, then, that every wise, every upright man, in such a society, should wield every energy that is given him, in confronting and arresting the doers of wrong, and in establishing the right against the possibility of future assault!

In other civilized nations, which are differently constituted—in Germany, France, and even England, for example, it may not be a matter of importance to the individual whether he interests himself in public affairs or not. Controlled, as those nations are, by monarchs, or oligarchs, his individual opinion to which he can give no effective expression, may possess but little weight. But in this country it is otherwise. Opinion is everything here; the opinion of the least man has some force; because everything is here discussed in open public assembly, and nearly everything decided by the free ballot. There is no hereditary monarch; there are no hereditary classes, educated for the purpose, to whom we may confide our practical statesmanship.

We have retained that function to ourselves. We are our own governors. We undertake to manage and pilot the ship of State on our own responsibility, and we can not avoid that undertaking, we cannot sink away from that responsibility, without incurring the guilt of a criminal non performance of duty. The father of a family, who should allow his servants to eat up his substance, and squander the patrimony of his children,—the man of business who should never look into the conduct of his clerks until they had ruined him by fraud or extravagance, would be universally reprobated, as either a very foolish or a very wicked man; and yet such a man is not one whit more reckless or more immoral than the citizen who enjoys the benignant right of suffrage and omits its use. Suffrage is the rudder of the State, it is the providence—it is that which guides and animates the commonwealth, and for any man to forego it, is not only to commit political suicide for himself, but to prove recreant to his highest and noblest obligations to his fellow-man.

How frequently have we heard, in late years, of the degeneracy of our politics!

"The tone and vigor of public sentiment," it is said, "has fallen—the impelling motives of great parties are no longer principles, but spoils—our Presidents are no more Washingtons and Madisons,—our Senators are demagogues, who, for a petty, personal triumph, can betray an Empire to servitude, and our representatives, who find large constituencies to applaud their doings, and larger factions to shelter them from the due penalties of public justice and public scorn, are not a whit better.

Look at the Senate of the United States, a body which, in its palmy days, was one of the most dignified and respectable of legislative assemblies, now evincing a tenacity and meanness of party spirit, wholly unworthy of it; declaring, through its speakers, that laws are atrocious, infamous, unconstitutional and disgraceful, and yet refusing, on the shabbiest technical grounds, or in base subserviency to a party behest, to repeal those laws."

Admitting this, we repeat the question, who is to blame! Our position is, that they are to blame who may, and will not, prevent it.

The community, itself, which refuses to exercise and to enforce its discrimination in the choice of public officers, and in the determination of public policy, cannot ascribe such a condition of things to any stronger cause than its own previous political indifference.

While men, capable of forming intelligent opinions, and capable of influencing the general mind, allow their absorption in business, their indolence, or their disregard of the vital consequences of political action, to keep them from forming opinions, and from expressing those opinions, by the effective agency of the ballot-box, they must expect to see public stations occupied by a degenerate class of statesmen,—by persons, even, who are not entitled to the name of statesmen at all, but are the merest schemers and self-seeking traders in politics.

What is not sown cannot be reaped, and they who slumber, instead of sowing, will find, as the Bible beautifully illustrates the truth, that the enemy, meanwhile, has filled the ground with tares.

The functions of government, on which so much of the physical and moral welfare of society depends, must be exercised by somebody; they do not execute themselves; they are applied either by upright or vicious men; and it remains with the people to determine to which of these they shall be committed.

A Compliment Returned.

SEVERAL LADIES of Raleigh, through our worthy ex-Secretary of State, having recently requested a re-de liveryof my Wake Forest Address, on the Oximatic Theory of Language, and thinking a refusal, based on its early publication, justifiable, the answer was politely returned, and in recollection of it, I would beg leave to state, that in view of the honor paid me by the fair ones of the City, it is a great pleasure to recognize their reputation for intelligence, and I would ask all desiring, to send in their names to Mr. J. A. Jones, our young and active bookseller, for a copy.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1868.

REGISTER! REGISTER!

1. Don't forget to Register. Every man must Register or he cannot vote. If you registered before it will not answer unless you register now.

2. Registrars will register names between the 15th of October, till and including the day of election, on the 3rd of November.

3. Registrars must give notice of the times and the places when they will register, and should not register at other times. No improper voter can be challenged except when he proposes to register; hence, the people should know when and where the registration takes place.

4. The Seymour and Blair Clubs must be sure to have proper persons at the Registrar's tables to challenge improper voters at all times. See to this.

5. There is no election in Virginia on the 3rd of November. We learn that negroes are being brought from Virginia into our border counties, on the pretence of working, but really for the purpose of registering and voting at our elections. Remember, no man has a right to register or to vote in this State unless he has been in the State one year before the election, and in the county, where he registers, thirty days before the election.

6. We beg our exchanges, public speakers, and friends generally, to have the people fully informed on the above subjects.

7. Tickets! Be sure to have every precinct well supplied with tickets. The names of candidates for Electors, &c., should be written or printed in full. Every County must order their own tickets in time.

COL. LIVINGSTON BROWN,

The Democratic and Conservative candidate for Congress in the 5th. District, will address his fellow-citizens at the following times and places, viz:

Albemarle, Thursday,	"	8th
Winston, Saturday,	"	10th
Rockford, Monday,	"	12th

APPOINTMENTS.

M. S. Robins, Esq., our Elector for the 5th Congressional District, requests us to announce that Col. Livingston Brown and himself will address the people at the following times and places, viz: At Kernersville,	Wednesday,	Sept.	30.

Danbury,	Thursday,	Oct.	1.
Mt. Airy,	Saturday,	"	3.
Dobson,	Monday,	"	5.
Spainhour's,	Tuesday,	"	6.
Bethania,	Wednesday,	"	7.
Winston,	Thursday,	"	8.

Mr. Robins also requests us to say that he extends a cordial invitation to the Radical Elector, Maj. H. A. Badham, to be present and participate in the discussion.

The reader will observe that several of the latter appointments conflict with Colonel Brown's previously published appointments. We presume that Col. Brown will attend his own appointments as already announced, at Lexington, Albemarle and Winston, and that Mr. Robins will be at Spainhour's, Bethania and Winston, as announced above.

Read the announcement of M. Grausman Merchant Tailor and Dealer on Fayetteville St. Mr. Grausman is fully prepared, as he says, to give perfect satisfaction in his line. He has every facility, and his Cutter, Mr. Sherwood, is famous the whole State over. Give Grausman a call.

THE LATE DR. W. H. MORROW.—The statement going the rounds of the papers, and copied in the "Sentinel," that Dr. W. H. Morrow, who was killed in the recent deplorable rencontre in Fayetteville, had taken the test oath, is a mistake. Dr. M never took that oath,—he having served in the Confederate army. We make this statement, most cheerfully, as a matter of justice.

THE GOLDSBORO Rough Notes, on and after Monday next, with a change of name, will appear under the Editorial management of W. A. Hearne and Swift Galloway, Esqrs. The Rough Notes has been an able, sprightly Journal, and will continue to be so under its new auspices.

BARBECUE AT CLAYTON.

There will be a grand Democratic and Conservative Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Clayton, Johnston Co., on Thursday, the 8th. inst. The people, generally, are invited to attend.

Speeches may be expected from the Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Gen. V. Strong, Esq., and R. C. Badger, Esq.

EASTERN WARD, LAST NIGHT!

Glorious Demonstration!

FLAG PRESENTATION, BALLOON, SPEECHES, &c!

We cannot pretend, this morning, to give even a faint account of the glorious rally in the glorious Eastern Ward, last night. In our next we will give a full description. Between six and eight hundred of the true men and fair ladies of the City were present, and we have never witnessed a more enthusiastic and cheering demonstration.

The beautiful Flag, made by the patriotic ladies of the Ward, was presented, on their behalf and at their request, by Seaton Gales, Esq., and received, on behalf of the Club, by Capt. John C. Gorman. The Flag was then hoisted, amid loud acclamations, to the top of the pole.

Short, but spirited and capital speeches were made by Captain DeCarteret, and Messrs. C. M. Busbee, Geo. H. Snow, F. H. Busbee, J. J. Litchford and T. M. Hughes.

After the speaking, there was a display of rockets and a magnificent Balloon ascension, amid music, the firing of cannon, the waving of handkerchiefs and the shouts of the multitude. The Balloon struck a beeline in the direction of Washington City!

GREAT MEETING AT SALISBURY.

The Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Salisbury, on the 8th. inst., will be, in all probability, one of the most imposing demonstrations of the campaign.

The following distinguished orators and statesmen have been invited and are expected to address the people, viz: Hons. Wm. A. Graham, Thos. Bragg, Z. B. Vance, Thos. S. Ashe, and A. S. Merrimon, Col. R. H. Cowan, Maj. Robt. Strange, David Schenck and J. M. Clement, Esqs., of this State, Hons. J. B. Baldwin, H. A. Wise, Thos. S. Flournoy, and A. H. Stuart, of Virginia, and Gen. Wade Hampton, of S. C.

At night there will be a grand Torch Light Procession, Balloon Ascension and display of Fireworks.

Raleigh must be represented in this great meeting. What say our Seymour and Blair Clubs?

WE HAVE ascertained that the printed matter spoken of in the "Query," in our last issue, was not lawfully franked. It came to the Raleigh Post-office, sealed up. Post masters have no authority or right to disregard or violate the sanctity of seals. They close papers and all printed matter, as well as letters, against Postmasters, as much as against everybody else. They (seals) put the exercise of the franking privilege upon the honor of the persons using it—as well of the person granting the frank as of the one using it. If that will not restrain them, the Postmaster, from whose office the matter is franked, is powerless in the case. The Postmaster at the office of delivery, has (if he chooses to exert it,) a better opportunity of ascertaining the facts.

HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—A negro man named Robert Williams, formerly of Chatham county, was arrested in this city, and committed to jail, on a charge of stealing a mule, a day or two ago. This same fellow is the party who stole the horse of Mrs. Mary E. Whitaker, of this county, recently advertised in this paper. Besides this, he has sold to a negro in Chatham county, a fine bay mare, about 7 years old, which he says he won from a negro in Moore county. The above facts establish the character of Williams as a keen horse thief. He is still in jail, and it is probable that parties, who have lost horses, may get on the track of them, by seeing him. The two first animals reported above have been recovered by their owners after he had sold them.

NOTICE.

The Electors for Johnston County, on the Seymour and Blair ticket for President and Vice President of the United States, will address the citizens of the county, at Meadow, 10th. of October; Bensonville, 11th; Ingram's, 24th; Shelter, 20th; Johnson's, 22nd; Swift Creek 23rd; Clayton, 24th.

We invite the Electors, Orators, Senators, Representatives and Judges, of the Radical party, to meet us, and discuss the great issues of the day, face to face, by daylight, before the people. They want the truth,—they want light,—they want information. That you may not be taken by surprise, we tell you what we, the Conservatives and Democrats, are in favor of, and what we are opposed to:

We are in favor of the Union and the Constitution, as made and interpreted by Washington Jefferson Madison, Hamilton, Jay, and their compatriots, and a prompt execution of the laws made in accordance therewith.

We are in favor of a free Legislature, Executive and Judiciary—each independent, yet necessary to constitute a perfect whole.

We are in favor of the Judiciary deciding on the constitutionality of laws passed by the Legislative department of the government.

We are in favor of the enactment and rigid execution of such laws as will guarantee to every citizen of the State, white and black, the protection of life, liberty, property, and the pursuit of happiness.

We are opposed to all secret political oath-bound organizations as being incompatible with the liberties of a free people.

We are opposed to arraying classes or color against each other, by falsehood or appeals to their prejudices or passions.

We are opposed to extravagant expenditures of the people's money by high taxes, as was done by the Radical party of the last Legislature. We are opposed to yankee adventurers and ignorant negroes making laws to govern the people of North Carolina.

We are opposed to stealing, generally, and, particularly, of "corn out of the fields" or hogs and cattle out of the woods, as advised by the North Carolina Standard, the organ of the Radical party of the State.

We are opposed to any discrimination between men of the Anglo Saxon race, because of the place of their birth; we extend to every honest man a hearty welcome and a hospitable hand, either as visitors or citizens of the Old North State.

J. T. LEACH,
WILLIS H. SANDERS } Electors.
WM. H. AVERA,

P. S. In due time, other appointments will be announced for the North side of the river.

THE RIOT IN GEORGIA.

INTERESTING STATEMENT OF THE HON. B. H. HILL.

The Hon. B. H. Hill, of Georgia, who is now in New York, has addressed the following letter to the Tribune of that city, and which is published in that journal of a late date. It deserves a careful perusal by every honest and reflecting reader:

To the Editor of the Tribune—Sir: I have read all you have said in the Tribune on the subject of the collision at Camilla, in the State of Georgia. I beg permission to make a statement which will present this whole affair in its true light to you and the Northern people.

Early in the canvass the whites of that State (nine tenths of whom are democrats) received positive information that the negroes were being encouraged to arm themselves and hold nightly drills in military style. They were told that the object of the democratic party was to re-enslave them, and that they must resist its success by force, and especially all negroes who should vote the democratic ticket. Very soon this canard, which originated in the Leagues, was openly proclaimed. White and colored speakers at public meetings advised the negroes to get ready to fight, and were reminded that they could use the torches for dwellings as well as the guns and axes against people. A painful rumor obtained currency that the acting Governor (Bullock) was in sympathy with, if not actually aiding, this movement. I do not know that this was actually so.

This state of things naturally created alarm. Several outbreaks were attempted, and several conspiracies to kill white people were detected, and the negroes, when arrested in different portions of the State, said they had authority and orders to this effect. We also most satisfactorily obtained information that the object of the few whites who incited the negroes to their crimes was two fold. First—To place the negroes, by discipline and excitement, beyond the influences which might induce them to vote with the democrats, or not to vote at all. Second—To provoke collisions expressly to influence the Northern people with charges of "rebel outrages." Now the interests and the policy of the whites was just the reverse. In the first place, it was democratic property, and democratic families, which would be endangered if riots occurred. In the next place, if the negroes became demoralized by these politico military organizations and frequent assemblages, the crops would not be well gathered, and democrats own the crops, and their impoverished condition made them anxious to gather as much as possible for the anticipated high prices. But lastly, we knew that the result of the Presidential election depended chiefly on the vote of the Northern States, and we were exceedingly anxious to avoid every possible occurrence which could excite the passions of the Northern people. Our property, our safety, our families, our maturing crops, and our PARTY POLICY all combined to make us anxious—unusually anxious—to KEEP THE PEACE. How could we effectually keep the peace? None but those who felt the responsibility will ever know the difficulties with which our situation invested this question. But we resolved by common concert and counsel—

First: To bear every insult, and every outrage, possible, and never to resist or resort to force in any form, except when actually necessary to protect property, person or family.

Second: To stop, by the constituted State authorities, all these nightly drillings, secret military organizations, and ARMED assemblages, of every character, as calculated to break the peace.

We had no confidence that the Governor would voluntarily aid us. Therefore, letters were addressed to the Legislature urging the Governor to issue his proclamation forbidding these armed demonstrations. The Governor issued his proclamation, but in a style and with false charges which greatly confirmed the worst fears of the whites as to his sympathy with these movements.

But we had the proclamation, and we hoped that all threatened danger would disappear. Now, there was not the slightest desire, as you seem to think, of interfering with the constitutional right of black and white "to keep and bear arms," or to have republican meetings—as many and as long as they desire. We only desire to prevent military drills, and organizations not authorized by law, and armed assemblages calculated to break the peace; and these we desire to prevent by LEGAL AUTHORITY, executed by the CIVIL OFFICER. You now have the exact reason why the sheriff met the approaching armed procession, and after exhibiting the Governor's proclamation told the leaders they could hold the meeting peaceably, but begged them not to attempt it in violation of that proclamation.

Camilla is a very small village of not exceeding, I would say, 300 inhabitants—black and white—men, women and children.

A large assemblage of negroes gathered from surrounding counties, led by those white men, and all armed, and to be excited by inflammatory speeches, and many of them by other causes, placed the people, families and houses of that little village in danger of pillage, rape and burning, with the alternative, if prevented, of fearful "rebel outrages," to kill negroes and prevent free speech, scattered all over the North just as the State election was approaching, which, it was believed, would determine the Presidential election!

I know both Pierce and Murphy, the two white men who conducted the whole affair. They are of the most emphatic specimens of what are termed carpet-baggers. Before the passage of the reconstruction measures, there was no complaint heard against them. These measures disfranchised every intelligent white citizen who held office in that country. Pierce settled as a Bureau agent in Lee county, and Murphy in Dougherty county, adjoining the county in which Camilla is situated; and in the counties of Lee and Dougherty there are five negroes to one white. I have no idea that one dozen white republicans could be found in the three counties.

Thus, you see at a glance the temptations offered to Pierce and Murphy to get offices by the large negro votes. Accordingly since the passage of the reconstruction measures these men have been sorted with the negroes. Pierce was for a time a candidate for Congress at the last election. He has now received the nomination for that position from a Convention of negroes. Murphy was elected sheriff by the negroes at the last election, but was unable to give the bond. He is now, I believe, on the electoral ticket. We have narrowly escaped several bloody riots in that region before. Our people here BELIEVED these men, especially the latter, incited them. They were both DISTINCTLY in view, with others, when we counted the difficulties in the way of preserving peace, and when we sought to secure the proclamation.

But in spite of that proclamation, and all the remonstrances of our people, and the tears of our women and children, they persisted in holding armed assemblages of negroes, and the Camilla riot is the unfortunate result.

The Camilla riot, properly understood, will exhibit to the Northern people, more clearly than a thousand speeches could, the exact reason why the Southern whites are, at present, unwilling to extend universal, indiscriminate suffrage to the negroes. It is because they can be taken possession of by a very few bad white men seeking office at their hands, and made terrors to society, and destroyers of safety for property and security for families. Many of the more intelligent understand and repudiate these influences, but the greater number do not.

In these very counties of Lee and Dougherty, in which Pierce and Murphy reside, do personally know (for I plant in both I those counties) that in 1866—after the surrender, mark you—lands were selling from $10 to $20 per acre. Immediately after the passage of these reconstruction measures these very lands commenced declining, and I do know that some of them have recently been sold (with cotton as high as it was in 1866) AT ONE DOLLAR PER ACRE IN GOLD!

To have our families and our lives thus constantly menaced and our property depreciated, is certainly a fearful and sad condition. Let every man in the North place himself, his family and his property in this condition in his native country, and then, when he makes the most peaceable efforts possible, in a lawful way, to avert these dangers, let him hear himself denounced as "a rebel," "an enemy," and a "traitor," and guilty of "rebel outrages," and he will have some idea of the exact condition of the Southern whites, many of whom did all in their power, like the writer, to prevent secession, and who have never seen the day when they would not give their lives to preserve the Constitution.

Our people bear these evils. Is there any other people on earth who would bear them so patiently? Why do they bear them? Because they look hopefully to the Northern people to rescue them.—They love every man North who is willing to rescue them. They want, above all things, peace. They will make any other sacrifice, accede to any other demand the North can make, to secure peace. But they cannot and they will not consent, by their own act, to dishonor themselves by disfranchising their wisest and best men, and agree to a scheme which must place their wives and their children and their little remnant of property under the domination of ignorant, semi-barbarous negroes, excited and led on by a few bad white men, who have no desire but to get office at the hands of these negroes.—Why should they, for peace, consent to that which must destroy all peace? Yours, very truly,

B. H. HILL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24, 1868.

THE PRESIDENTIAL BATTLE—THE DUTY OF EVERY DEMOCRAT AND CONSERVATIVE.

We have not experienced an hour when we were doubtful of success since the nomination of our candidates. There were quite a number who, immediately after the nominations, thought they were not the best that could have been made.—But reflection soon convinced those gentlemen of their error, and they finally admitted that the ticket was a strong one and would command success. Indeed, such was the feeling of confidence that succeeded, that even the Radicals wore long faces, and almost gave up in despair. That a change from this condition of things has taken place cannot be denied. The enemy have rallied, and now swaggeringly feign a confidence in the election of Grant and Colfax that may well impose upon the confiding as sincere. We may as well admit that this swaggering and boasting have imposed upon a number of our friends. Why is all this? What has happened to change the prospect of either party up to three weeks ago? What reason has any one for supposing that the people are any less determined now upon a change in our rulers in the coming elections than they were just after the nomination of Seymour and Blair? Where is the defection in the ranks of our grand organization? What man of influence has gone over to the enemy, or given evidence of want of faith in our success? No elections certainly have occurred that should discourage our friends or impart confidence in our enemies. If we calmly canvass the elections of Vermont and Maine there is really everything to stimulate our courage. The same ratio of gains in the States to vote in October will surely give us every one of them by large majorities.—For the life of us we can see nothing that should change the opinion entertained three weeks ago. Democrats, you are now entering the solemn hours that precede the battle! For the sake of the country at once cast behind you all apprehensions and go to work in earnest. We summon every man to be true to himself and do his whole duty. Let the trumpet call into action every soldier of the Union! Let the chiefs of every precinct set to work, and from this time on devote themselves to rousing the sluggard, instructing the wavering, and encouraging the timid—and victory is certain! Rouse up, then, friends of the Constitution! Pass the word all along the line that every man must keep at his post till after election day! Throw off lethargy where it may exist. Take courage! Victory is sure if you will only work for it in earnest. Croakers are traitors in this crisis, and should be turned out of camp. Let us all make another grand effort, and a glorious triumph awaits us! We speak what we know. Our information, which is derived from the highest and most reliable and intelligent sources from all quarters of the country—being official in its nature—assures us that we can win it we will. Then let us all determine to do our whole duty and "God protect the right!"—Wash. Exam. Express.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Sept. 26th.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Allow me, through your columns, to inform the true men of this State, belonging to the Seymour and Blair party, that, notwithstanding some infamous, sneaking, cowardly scalawag had the effrontery and numbskulness to steal the line by which we raised our flag, we have, this evening, by lowering our pole, and doing almost the same work a second time, which we did when it was first raised, succeeded in fixing our pole for the support of the Seymour and Blair flag, which I hope, by the blessing of God and the vigilance of the Conservatives, may continue to float on the breeze till after the election.

This heinous piece of rascality against the flag, which every true Union man and friend of liberty should ever honor, was perpetrated in the night previous to the day on which Judge Battle delivered his able address, wherein he exposed so many of the weak points and explained so much of the gross fallacy of Radicalism, that he convinced and converted many who had already begun to look upon the actions of the Radical party with suspicion. Every Radical in the State should have a copy of his speech, that they might the more plainly see, from a perusal of it, that they are occupying an unsafe position—one supported principally by carpet baggers and scalawags who have not the interests of our State at heart, but its lucrative offices instead. In this speech, the Judge told the people how they were being imposed upon by the present party in power, and of many other things; and the best of all, he said nothing but what he proved.

Although there have been many indignities by all kinds of proscriptive measures, heaped upon the people of this place, still they are alive to the interests and liberties of the people, and will, at the approaching election, give a majority for Seymour and Blair. D.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officer-holder, the consumer and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good, the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace, and a return to that system of raising revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of perpetual allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has wantonly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and rest of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and is destructive to the peace will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the states will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the preemption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no doubtful sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of states which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NEW YORK.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 60, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premiums charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it need not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate	AGE	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent. of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said states. To live and energetic Agents, who are WILLING and ANXIOUS to work, liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.
